

Le Bonfillier Bros

14th St.,
BET. UNION SQUARE & 5TH AVE.

Sacrifice of 300 doz.

TOWELS.

Extra large (24x48) all linen, knotted fringe and open work, colored bordered Satin Damask Towels,

25c.

worth 42c. each.

Fourteenth St.

Nearly $300,000 Lost and 800 Men Thrown Out of Work.Three Horse Burned Alive and Fifty Families Driven Into the Street.The big blaze in Williamsburg that flamed the east side of the city during the early hours of this morning, destroyed two entire blocks.The blaze from works, occupying nearly a whole block, were totally destroyed, and the fire also swept away the coverage plant of Brennan & Jolliffe, burned three horses to death, drove fifty families into the street, frantic with fear, and caused considerable damage to buildings in the neighborhood.The fire broke out in the pattern room of the Brennan Iron Works, located on North Eleventh streets. It is supposed to have originated from an overheated stove.Watchman Henning was on duty last night, but was winding the clocks at 11:30 o'clock, when Policeman Puckett, of the Bedford Avenue Station, saw smoke issuing from a window in the second story of the four-story building that forms the main structure.He turned in an alarm at once, but before he had arrived five minutes afterwards the whole pattern-room was ablaze.The source of the smoking was of yellow pine and the fire spread with great rapidity.
The strong wind blowing from the west fanned the flames until the fire was soon at a white heat.Fifteen minutes after the fire was discovered it was seen that there was no hope for the Brennan Works. The fire soon spread to the Brennan Works, and the adjoining buildings were of wood and the great fire spread over them in an alarming manner.By this time the foundry of Tuttle & Bailey, which was in the rear of the Brennan Works, also in a blaze.Then the large sparks set fire to the roof of Brennan & Jolliffe's coverage works on Driggs street, three blocks away, and at 1:45 the building was a mass of flames.The combustible character of the stock made a very hot fire so that it was impossible to reach the three-story building in an alarming manner.The building was two stories in height, and had extended from North Tenth to North Eleventh streets on Driggs.The flames from works of Davis & Co. in the rear were soon in flames, too, but the flames did not spread to the rear. The office and main shop room were saved.The tenants of the apartment houses between the two fires became wild with fear, smoke filled their rooms, and they fled in confusion.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.The fire was a very serious one. The Brennan Works employed about six hundred
men, and the fire was a very serious one.
The fire was a very serious one.Boomingdale Bros 34 Ave. Corner 59th St.
SHOE SALE.

This Style, $1.49.

480 pairs Ladies' black suede opera slippers, gold beaded vamp and bow, widths C, D and E, sold everywhere at $2.50, for this sale.435 pairs red beaver warm lined house slippers, all sizes, at $1.49.475 pairs Misses' Dongola kid button spring heel shoes, sizes 11 to 2, cheap for $1.50, at.....

RUBBERS.

Misses' and Children's high button ARCTIC, spring heels, our former price $1.50, to close out.Men's buckle ARCTIC, best make, to close out.Men's Goodfry Glove Co. first quality self-sealing wool-lined ALASKA, to close out.Men's self-sealing CLOGS, best make.

This Style, $1.29.

3,350 pairs hand made OXFORD TIE: Amazon kid cloth; patent leather pointed tips; closed top; in gray, tan, white and black; sizes 2 1/2 to 6; widths B, C, D and E; very neat; usually sold from $2.00 to $2.50, for this sale1,830 pairs Ladies' Amazon kid common-sense button shoes, with or without patent leather tips, widths A, C, D and E, sizes 2 1/2 to 7, every pair warranted excellent value for $1.00, at.....150 pairs Ladies' extra quality button shoes, consisting of kangaroo, kid foxed, patent tip, straight goad, foxed, cork sole and cloth top, patent leather foiled, all hand sewed, sizes BROKEN, our former price $4.00 to $5.00, at.....650 pairs Young's real calf button and lace shoes, sizes 11 to 2,Bloomington Bros., Third ave., cor. 59th st.

McGLORY SHOWS HIS HAND.

It's Army Hall's Boss Who Wants
the Fourteenth Street License.Pastor McEwen Tells How Billy Pleaded for "Another Show."Billy McGlory, of Hester street dance-hall fame, still at work trying to establish himself as the keeper of a public resort with McGlory accompaniments on Fourteenth street.THE EVENING WORLD of Jan. 22 told of the interest taken in the change of proprietorship of the Hotel Irving, at Irving place and Fourteenth street by the former proprietor, Mr.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street, where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street Presbyterian Church, and who, with many property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church, which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighbor-
hood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighbor-
hood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighbor-
hood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighbor-
hood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighbor-
hood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighbor-
hood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.Bloomington Bros., Third ave., cor. 59th st.

McGLORY SHOWS HIS HAND.

It's Army Hall's Boss Who Wants
the Fourteenth Street License.Pastor McEwen Tells How Billy Pleaded for "Another Show."Billy McGlory, of Hester street dance-hall
fame, still at work trying to establish himself as the keeper of a public resort with
McGlory accompaniments on Fourteenth
street.THE EVENING WORLD of Jan. 22 told of the interest taken in the change of proprietorship
of the Hotel Irving, at Irving place and Fourteenth street by the former proprietor, Mr.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.The house at 205 East Fourteenth street is a
three-story brown-stone affair, formerly used
as a residence. It is in a respectable neighborhood and nearly opposite the entrance to the
lecture room of Rev. Mr. McGlory's church,
which is at 205 East Third-street.Further information of McGlory's movements was obtained to-day by THE EVENING
WORLD, in an interview with Rev.
Henry T. McGlory, of 205 East Third-street,
where the pastor of the Fourteenth Street
Presbyterian Church, and who, with many
property-owners and residents of the neighborhood, is waging a vigorous fight against
the granting of a license to the notorious Bully's place.Boomingdale Bros
34 Ave. Corner 59th St.
CLOAKS.The great Cloak Sale goes ahead with increasing interest.
The garments are all very superior as to quality, style, fit and finish, and were made up exclusively for the finest Retail Trade.
The new prices show forty, fifty, sixty per cent. off—a saving that can be fully appreciated upon seeing the goods.

NOTE THESE PRICES.

LONG GARMENTS that were $4.98
$10.98, now $6.75

LONG GARMENTS were $12.50 to $18.50, now $9.75

CAPE NEWMARKETS, fine all-wool plaid materials, were $10.50, now $7.75

Fine imported NEWMARKETS, elegantly braided, value $30.00; sale price $10.75

Fine cheviot JACKETS that sold for $10.50 and $12.50, now $6.75

One lot vest front JACKETS, fine cheviot materials, regular price $12.50; now $6.48

Fine cloth JACKETS, in plain beaver and chevots, that sold for $10.00 and $12.00, now $6.95

Fine cheviot JACKETS, reofer style, silk-lined, were $25.00 and $28.00, now $16.75

Seal plush JACKETS, elegantly lined, value $14.00; sale price $8.95

Fine seal plush JACKET, trimmed with six inch fur of wool seal and Astrakhan, all sizes, value $22.50; sale price $14.98

Seal plush JACKET, extra quality satin lining, trimmed with seal Astrakhan, value $22.50; sale price $14.98

One lot Children's, in fine plaids, elegant styles, with and without capotes, worth $7.50 to $9.50; special price $4.95

One lot Misses' NEWMARKETS, with triple capes, worth $7.50;
special price $4.98

Bloomington Bros., Third ave.,
cor. 59th st.

NOONAN WANTS A NEW TRIAL.

Convicted of a Burglary to Which Another Man Confesses.Augustus Mettler Yet Declares That He Robbed the Salowitz Till.Lawyer Ambrose H. Purdy made a motion before Recorder Smyth, in Part II, General Sessions, this morning, for a new trial for James Noonan, convicted on Jan. 21 last of burglary in the salowitz grocery store, at a Jefferson street, on the night of Jan. 11 preceding.When Noonan was about to be sentenced he still protested that he was innocent, and a lodging-house frequenter, known as Gus Mettler, "the Duke," suddenly appeared in court and insisted in the end that Noonan had committed the burglary.The Recorder declined to commit Mettler, however, believing that it was a scheme to free Noonan, and Mettler has since been at large, turning up frequently in Lawyer Purdy's office, and always insisting that he, and not Noonan, was the burglar.Noonan was brought up from the Tombs for sentence this morning, when Lawyer Purdy made his motion.Mettler was also in court, and it was principally upon his affidavit that Lawyer Purdy rested his argument for a new trial. He insisted that he had been arrested, and that he, and not Noonan, was the burglar.Noonan was brought up from the Tombs for
sentence this morning, when Lawyer Purdy
made his motion.Mettler was also in court, and it was principally upon his affidavit that Lawyer Purdy
rested his argument for a new trial. He
insisted that he had been arrested, and that he, and not Noonan, was the burglar.Noonan was brought up from the Tombs for
sentence this morning, when Lawyer Purdy
made his motion.Mettler was also in court, and it was principally upon his affidavit that Lawyer Purdy
rested his argument for a new trial. He
insisted that he had been arrested, and that he, and not Noonan, was the burglar.Noonan was brought up from the Tombs for
sentence this morning, when Lawyer Purdy
made his motion.Mettler was also in court, and it was principally upon his affidavit that Lawyer Purdy
rested his argument for a new trial. He
insisted that he had been arrested, and that he, and not Noonan, was the burglar.Noonan was brought up from the Tombs for
sentence this morning, when Lawyer Purdy
made his motion.Mettler was also in court, and it was principally upon his affidavit that Lawyer Purdy
rested his argument for a new trial. He
insisted that he had been arrested, and that
he, and not Noonan, was the burglar.Noonan was brought up from the Tombs for
sentence this morning, when Lawyer Purdy